Foreword

We, the Annual Staff of 1958, are proud to present our edition of The Thunderbolt. We hope in years to come as you turn through these pages you will recall only pleasant memories of achievements, happy and worthy experiences, and unselfish and lasting friendships formed while at H.H.S.

Table of Contents

Editor, Charlotte Lambert; Sponsors, Mr. Owens, Mrs. Phillips, Mr. Matherly; Co-Editor, Claude Cumbo.

Annual Staff

Club Editor, Virginia Mullins; Typists, Robert Hill, Shirley Epling, Maggie Counts; Artists, Katy Thomas, Ronnie Owens; Photographer, Nancy Belcher.

Dedication

As citizens of our community who have worked for our educational improvement; who have helped us willingly and with fullest capacity; we, the Senior Class of 1958, as a token of appreciation for their interest and advancement of Haysi High, sincerely wish to dedicate this edition of "The Thunderbolt," to Doctor T. C. Sutherland and his loyal and helpful wife.

In Appreciation

We, the Senior Class, wish to express our appreciation to our faithful and understanding sponsors who have helped to make our school life more pleasant; who have encouraged and guided us in all our undertakings; we express our thanks to Maynard Owens, Eula Phillips, and Stacy Matherly.

Dear Seniors,

It has been a pleasure working with you. With your graduation from Haysi High School, you will have completed another phase of your education. With this background, I hope you will continue to go forward with your preparation for a place in our democratic society.

May the precious jewels of opportunity be the reward of those whose patience and fidelity endure undiminished to the end.

Sincerely,

J. M. Tarwater

In Appreciation

The administration, faculty, and students of Haysi High School, wish to express our appreciation to Superintendent, J. H. T. Sutherland, for his continued efforts in our behalf. His understanding of our problems and his patience and kindness toward those whom he is associated are admired by students and faculty alike. Much of the success of our school year can be attributed to his great store of experience accumulated through the years he has been associated with the school system of this county.

We, the Annual Staff, for the entire high school, express our appreciation to Superintendent, J. H. T. Sutherland.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Haysi High School, in the year of 1957 to 1958, being in reasonably good health and of doubtfully sound mind, realizing the uncertainty of grades and the vacillating dispositions of our faculty members, do hereby make this, our last will and testament.

I, Kay Sutherland, will all my hate for Michigan to anyone who wants it.

I, Carrol Turner, will H. H. S. to Jeff Turner and Jerry Stallard and to the rest of my friends.

I, Linda Yates, will all my love for H. H. S. to my sister, Loretta.

I, Ronnie Owens, will my love for beautiful horses to the beautiful girls who also love horses.

I Billy Coleman, will all my love for pretty girls to Carley Gene Mullins.

I, James Bartley, being the only one of sound mind, take my belongings with me and the heck with the rest.

I, Nina Compton, will all my school books to Chad Barton to finish the 12th grade, because he certainly needs it.

I, Betty Carrol Fletcher, will all my dates and freedom to Nina Compton, Charlotte O'quinn and Helen Barton.

I, Rachel Sullivan, will my love for H. H. S. to anyone who enjoys school as much as I do.

I, Carley Sluss, will my Physics book to anyone who is crazy enough to take it, and can pass it.

I, Lola Edwards, will my love to play basketball to anyone who will think half as much of it as I.

I, Bobby Hall, will my books to Johnny Arrington.

I, Virginia Hay, will my love for Florida to anyone who likes it as much as I do.

I, George B. Yates will all my love for candy to Mrs. Baily.

I, Betty Lyall, will everything in H. H. S. to my good friends, Vivian Turner and Margaret Campbell.

I, Donald Owens, will my algebra book to anyone who is dumb enough to take it.

I, Robert Hill, will my love for baseball to Bobby Comer.

I, Rhett Sutherland, will all my taste of good food to Jimmy Taylor, the only one who doesn't need it, and my knowledge of baseball to Lorraine Jackson, who will need it before the next World series.

I, Claude Cumbo, will my French book to Patsy Deel, in hopes she does better with it than I did.

I, Charlotte Lambert, leave whatever I have, if I have anything, to whoever needs whatever I leave and can do anything with whatever this thing is.

I, Larry Fuller, will my ping-pong paddles to Mr. Deel's physical ed boys in hopes that they will keep that little ball bouncing on Co-Ed day.

I, Ann Anderson, will my good times at H. H. S. to all those who can do certain things and get by with it.

I, Nancy Belcher, in ill health and no mind, will anything that I leave behind me to anyone that can use it.

I, Hazel Fuller, will all our senior problems to the future seniors.

I, Peggy Anderson, will my love and good times at H. H. S. to the future seniors.

I, Ethel Newberry, will all of my excuses for being absent to Mr. Tarwater.

I, Shelba Anderson, will my ability to graduate, although married, to my brother, Morgan.

I, Pauline Amos, will my love for all guys but Bill H. to my sister, Fannie.

I, Marie Frazier, will my love for H. H. S. and my fun that I have had there to my sisters, Barbara and Katy.

I, Manthalee Yates, will all my love for the Pink-Room to mother, Lola Yates.

I, Pauline Mullins, will my love for fun and crazy boys to Sharon Mullins and all the kids at Tarpon.

I, James Hay, in a state of confusion, will all my flirty ways to Morgan Anderson and hope he has more fun with them than I did.

I, Edgar Rice, will all my books to anyone who will have them.

I, Ivan Duty, will my English book to Mr. Street and the faculty who wants it.

I, Kenneth Compton, will all my books and love for women to my younger brother, Darrel.

I, Gladys Rose, will my desire to graduate at H. H. S. to my sisters, Mary, Connie and Kathy, but everything else I own goes down with me.

I, Gary Rose, in sound mind and in the best of health, will my brains and ideas to anyone who wants them.

I, Janice Mullins, will everything that I leave to Barbara and Carol Mullins and Barbara all, which won't be much.

I, Fairy Cochran, unlike the rest of my classmates, intend to take everything unattached with me.

I, Joan Willis, will take everything I have with me except my flirty ways and this I will to my little sister, Rhee, who will soon need them.

I, Sue Rakes, being in sound mind, will my flirty ways and love for H. H. S. to Sue Arrington and Kay Kiser.

I, Don Raines, will my engineering boots to my brother, Jerry Raines, as soon as his feet get big enough to wear them.

I, Shirley Farmer, will love for H. H. S. to the future Seniors.

I, Paula Counts, will my love for Music Class to my younger, sweeter sister, Charlotte, and my algebra book to anyone that is sucker enough to take it.

I, Helen Barton, will my love for working in the office to Delmar Barton and my love for Earl to Myself.

I, Phillis Edwards, will all my love for cute boys to my friend, Joyce Mullins.

I, Maggie Counts, will all my love for school and the boys to my sister and Pat Miller.

I, Stoney Fields, will my speech book to anyone who is crazy enough to take it.

I, Joe Harlowe, will my moonshine still to Stoney Fields, Gene Counts and Frank Willis.

I, Frank Willis, will all my women to Joe Harlowe and Stoney Fields.

I, Carolyn Wright, will my love for dancing to anyone who loves it as much as I do.

I, Linda Gail Hay, will my love for Gaines Stiltner to Pat Miller.

I, Harold Edwards, will my good looks and common sense to Palmer Woods.

I, Gray Kiser, in a state of shock, will my algebra book to Mrs. Bailey.

I, Palmer Woods, will the future of H. H. S. to the good fellows that will follow me.

I, Johnny Arrington, will my charm and good looks and common sense to Ronnie Sutherland.

I, Ralph Owens, will my kindness in exchange for the kindness the teachers and principal have shown me.

I, Leon Ramsey, will my French book and the glances from the bus driver to Charlotte Lambert.

I, Sidney Counts, will my love for the bus driver to Jimmy Anderson.

I, Carrol Woods, will my love and appreciation to the teachers and principal of H. H. S.

I, Danny Robinson, will my love for French to Danny Hay.

I, James C. Yates, will my speech book to the classes of 1958-59.

I, Earl Bartley, will my love for the girls of H. H. S. to the eleventh grade boys and my sympathy to the future teachers of H. H. S.

I, Ronald Compton, will my love to cheerleader to some other boy.

I, Nell Sykes, will all my rough basketball playing to Janice Rice, Jerline Sykes and Ronald Sykes.

I, Wanda Epling, will my love to Jackie Owens and all of my fun at H. H. S. to Kitty Mondrage and Lorraine Jackson.

I, Shelba Owens, will my love for H. H. S. to the future seniors.

I, Thanna Davis, will my love for reading to Edith Davis and hope that she will profit from it.

I, Theda Turner, will all my love for H. H. S. to my sister, Patricia.

I, Phyllis Gilbert, will all my good days at H. H. S. to my brother, Garnell.

I, Marlene Rasnake, will my love for school to anyone dumb enough to accept it.

I, Opal Mullins, will all my books and good times to Sue Yates and Eura Belle Fuller.

I, Edna Edwards, will my desire to graduate to Woodrow.

I, Fern Colman, will my love for basketball to all the girls who are interested.

I, Theda Edwards, will my love to my sister and brother, Glenda and Norris.

I, Katy Thomas, will all my hard work and good times to my sisters, Theda Gay Thomas, and Lucille, hoping they have as much fun in school as I did.

We, Oland Artrip, Jim O'quinn, Frank Ratliff, Harry Mullins, and Bobby Taylor, will our love for Mr. Tarwater's paddle to anyone who can stand it.

We, Gene Counts and Gene Harlowe, will our ability to skip class to anyone who thinks they can get by with it.

We, Ann Gail Hammon, Bernice Colley and Trulah Yates, will our appreciation to our parents for aiding us in completing school.

We, Virginia Mullins and Shirley Epling, will our love for Pepsi-Colas to Mack Mullins and Johnny Colley.

We, Gloria O'Quinn and Georgia Tiller, will our love for Clemor and Junior to anyone who thinks they can get them.

We, Charlotte O'Quinn and Judy Childress, will our evil minds and wicked souls to the ones left behind.

Class Prophecy

Yes, just yesterday we were thinking what our classmates of 1957-58 last words were. "In 20 years from this day, we'll meet on the moon for our class reunion." Then, it was something to laugh about, but now since our great scientist, Gloria O., has brought forth the "Saddlelight," it is possible. We decided to go just to see how many of our classmates remembered this.

The rocket was off with a boom! Glancing around, we saw we weren't the only ones abroad. Billy C. was pilot and Frank W. was Co-Pilot. In the control room we saw Ronnie O., James Y., and Carley S. Danny R., Bobby H., Gene H., and Gene C., the great servicemen, were also abroad. Katy T. and Fairy C. made their round as stewardesses to make sure everyone was comfortable.

With a crash, the rocket landed. Awaiting us, was Carrol T., in a flying saucer, invented by Rhett S. and his assistants, Larry F. and Johnny A.

Wandering downtown, we passed a teen-age riot, starring Harry M., Elvis Presley's biggest rival. Amidst the crowd, Carolynn W., Virginia M., Shirley E., Paula C., and Kay S. were giving a demonstration of Rock 'n' Roll as it was in '57.

Approaching the capital, we saw posters such as: Kennith C., VS. Edgar R., for president. Later on, we heard the election returns. James H. was elected Mayor by a Russian Artificial Moon-slide.

Touring the court building, we learned that Manthlee Y., the great lawyer, was trying desperately to clear James B., Bob T., Frank R., Jimmy O., and Don R. on the case of stealing headless chickens.

Touring another section of town, we noticed the different movies showing. "Wild Bull from Borneo," starring Ralph O. and Virginia H.; "Man Hunters from Mars," starring Anne A. and Theda E., co-starring Theda T. and Gladys R.

Purchasing the "Moon Shine" newspaper, edited by Charlotte L. and Gail H., we first noticed the headlines as being "The Great Missionary, Betty L., is being hunted by the Detectives, Claude C., Robert H. and Gary R., on the charges of fleeing from Pluto." Our attention was also called to another topic. Shelby C. and Hazel F., representatives from the Travelers Guild of America, were visiting the moon in order to organize a "Traveling Housewives Club." Fern C. and Shelby A. were being given a free trip around the world to prove the club was worthwhile. Other members included Helen B., Betty F., JoAnn S., Ethel B. and Ann H.

Meanwhile, back in the U. S., doctors Gray K., Leon R., and Georgia T., with the assistance of their nurses, Maggie C., Linda Y. and Shirley F., discovered the cure for "gigglites." Being a loyal citizen, Carrol W. volunteered to be their guinea pig.

Our travelers companion, Nell S., accompanied us back to Earth. We arrived in New York just in time for the final game of the World Series. Nina C.'s one family team won over their competitors with the fine coaching of Donald O. and Palmer W.

Wandering on downtown, we saw a sign, "JOE'S GARAGE," owned by Joe H. Stepping inside, we learned that Pauline M. was private secretary, assisted by Janice M. and Edna E. In the next department, George Y. was training Marlene R. and Peggy A. to replace Thanna D. and Berneice C., who were leaving to be married.

Deciding to visit Haysi, we went to the train station. Entering the building to purchase our tickets, we found Phillis E. and Pauline A. at the information desk, and Marie F. as telephone receptionist.

Boarding the train, we were greeted at the door by Stoney F., the conductor. The porter, Ronald C., turned the TV on, and we quickly noticed the program in progress as "This is Your Wife," directed by Ivan D., the henpecked husband. He was interviewing Earl B. and Sidney C., who were leaving for Hawaii and Paris on their second honeymoons. With a flash, a special bulletin was announced. Lola E. and Nancy B. were being crowned "Housewives of the Year" by last year's winners, Charlotte O. and Judy C.

As soon as we arrived in Haysi, we decided to visit the school. Oland A. had replaced Mr. Tarwater as Principal. Opal M. and Rachel S. were his secretaries. Sue R. and her science class were discussing if a trip to the moon were possible. Trula Y. was head of the Home Ec Department, while Harold E. was the Agriculture instructor.

Since some of our classmates forgot our reunion on the moon, maybe at our next reunion, 20 years from now, everyone will be present.

And So Goodbye

At last the end of our school days fades away . . . Our four years of study . . . cherished friendships . . . schoolwork and school activities have slowly faded away. . . A new life lies ahead . . . fame and fortune for some, disappointment and heartache for others . . .each one out to seek success . . . As we approach the future we shall always remember our class motto, "It matters not what we are thought to be, but what we are."
